

Road name guidelines (extract)
A name will be:

1. Easy to pronounce and spell, as far as possible
2. Relevant to Australian, preferably local, history, flora, fauna, culture, landscape or physical characteristics; and
3. Only one word, excepting personal names and understanding that a geographic relationship such as Blackall Range Rd is permissible; and
4. When choosing indigenous names the local indigenous community groups should be consulted and confirmation provided.
5. Names that may be construed as advertising a commercial or industrial enterprise are not suitable.
6. The use of a specific persons name will only be used in memorian, the person commemorated should:
 - a) Have contributed significantly to the development of the locality or region; or
 - b) Have demonstrated outstanding levels of civic service; or
 - c) Have achieved role-model status in the wider community or donated property or funds for community benefit.
7. Road names should be unique within the SCC region and be single destinations, e.g. Palmwoods Road, not Woombye Palmwoods Road
8. Council approval of new road names is required before a plan of subdivision is lodged for sealing
9. A road layout plan, including future road extensions must be accompany the application.
